WHAT TO DO
You have been issued a citation that charges you with a traffic infraction. You must respond by following one of the procedures below by the date on the front (see "WHEN"). If you do not, you may lose your license to drive, and your money penalties may increase.
1. If you do NOT contest the violation
a. (Pay the bail amount) (See "BAIL INFORMATION" below) Your bail will be forfeited to the court. You will not have to appear in court. You will be convicted of the violation, and it will appear on your record at the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV). A point count will be charged to your DMV record for this offense and your insurance may be adversely affected.
b. (Traffic school) You may be able to avoid the point count and adverse effect on your insurance by attending traffic school. Contact the court to request traffic school. You must pay the bail amount as a fee and you may have to pay other fees.
2. If you contest the violation (select one)
a. (Court trial) Send a certified or registered letter postmarked not later than five days prior to the appearance date, or come to the court by the appearance date to request a court trial on a future date when an officer and witnesses will be present. You will be given a date for your trial. You will be required to submit the bail amount. You will be give a date for your trial. -----OR-----
b. (Trial by written declaration) Send a certified or registered letter postmarked not later than five days prior to the appearance date, or come to the court on or before the date on the front and request a trial by written declaration. Submit the bail amount. You will be given forms to allow you to write a statement and submit other evidence without appearing in court. An officer will also submit a statement. The judicial officer will consider all of the evidence at the same time and decide the case
WRITING TO THE COURT
If you write to the court, always write the citation number and your driver's license number on your letter. Use of certified or registered mail is required. Do not send your copy of the citation. Keep it for your own records.
BAIL INFORMATION
The "bail" is the amount you must pay. A separate notice will be issued to you from the Riverside County Superior Court with your final bail amount due.
NIGHT COURT
NIGHT COURT TRIALS appearances are available for this citation.
JUVENILES
If you are under 18, you must be accompanied by your parent or guardian when you appear in court. Bring this citation and your driver's license.
